

Maintenance and Repair

EcoWise Irrigation LLC

Precision repairs that protect your landscape and save water.

What it is

Our maintenance and repair services deliver repair and ongoing care solutions to keep commercial and residential watering systems running reliably, from urgent pipe breaks to simple spray head repairs we protect landscape investments while optimizing overall water efficiency.

What it involves

An example of the services that fall under maintenance and repair

- Fixing broken lateral or mainline pipes.
- Faceplate controller error resolution.
- Replacing leaking zone valves/solenoids .
- Repairing backflow assemblies*
- Replacing damaged pop-up sprinklers or rotors.
- Cleaning clogged drip emitters.
- Adjusting smart weather sensors.
- Valve box Locating.
- Adding rain, soil or flow sensors.
- Converting spray zones to high-efficiency drip tubing.
- Full system test run to ensure proper head-to-head coverage, zero leaks, and correct controller scheduling.

*Any repairs made to a backflow require it to be tested and the results submitted to the water purveyor see backflow testing sheet and terms and conditions for more information and pricing

Pricing

Pricing for this service is set at the standard hourly rate* plus cost of any parts used.

Hourly rate is $100 per hour with a 1 hour minimum.

Prepared by: Sarah Freeman LI27188

Sep 2026 v1.0

www.ecowiseirrigation.com